3 Sec. 3. Chapter 4 of Title 48 of the District of Columbia Official Code is amended by
4 adding the new section 48-404 to read as follows:

5 “48-404. Urban Farming Land Initiative.

6 “(a) By February 1, 2015, the Mayor shall identify at least twenty-five District-owned
7 vacant lots that can potentially be used for successful urban farming ventures. At minimum,
8 identified lots should meet the following criteria:

9 “(1) A minimum 2500 square feet; and

10 “(2) Have no pending agreements for development or sale for the following
11 three years.

12 “(b) By February 1, 2015, the Mayor shall establish a land leasing initiative whereby
13 qualified District applicants will be selected to develop certain District-owned vacant lots
14 identified in subsection (a) for the purpose of urban agriculture. All lease agreements entered
15 into under this initiative shall be for a term of at least three years. Applicants must meet the 16 following criteria to be considered:

17 “(1) The applicant must be a resident of the District of Columbia for at least one
18 (1) year prior to application;

19 “(2) The applicant shall have at least one (1) year of successful experience in 20 agricultural production either as the sole farmer, an employee, a volunteer, or a significant
21 partner of a farmer;

22 “(3) The applicant shall not owe the District more than $100 in outstanding fines,
23 penalties, or interest assessed pursuant to the outlined acts of § 47-2862(a)(1) and § 47-2862(b).

1 “(4) The applicant shall have no outstanding code violations on property or
2 properties currently owned by the applicant.

3 “(b) Any lease entered into pursuant to subsection (b) with an independent farm or farm
4 cooperative may permit the sale of fresh fruits and vegetables on the leased land, off the leased
5 land, or both.

6 “(c) Property leased pursuant to subsection (b) of this section shall be exempt from
7 real property taxation or possessory interest taxation.

8 “(d) The Mayor shall report to the Council annually on the status of the land leasing
9 initiative to include, but be limited to:

10 “(1) The number of active urban gardens in the District of Columbia;

11 “(2) The names of the participants of the initiative;

12 “(3) Any educational or community programming or events hosted on the leased
13 lots during that calendar year; and

14 “(4) The amount of produce harvested by the participants during the calendar
15 year.”

16

17 Sec. 4. From Farm to Food Donation Tax Credit.

18 (a) Title 47 of the District of Columbia Official Code is amended as follows:

19 (1) The table of contents for Chapter 18 is amended by inserting the section
20 designation “47-1806.12. Tax on residents and nonresidents – Credits – Tax Credit for Farm to 21 Food Donation.”.

22 (2) Chapter 18 is amended by adding the new section 47-1806.12 to read as 23 follows:

1 “§ 47-1806.12. Tax Credit for Farm to Food Donations.

3 vegetables, fruits, grains, mushrooms, honey, herbs, nuts, seeds, and rootstock that are intended
4 to be used as food in its perishable state and are approved by regulatory authorities.

5 “(b) After January 1, 2015, any qualified unincorporated business under § 6-1504
6 may claim a nonrefundable credit against taxes imposed by this subchapter equal to 50% of the
7 value of food commodity donations made during the tax year to a District of Columbia food bank
8 or shelter recognized as a tax-exempt organization pursuant to 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(3).

9 “(c) The credit shall not exceed $5,000 per unincorporated business per tax year
10 and shall not reduce the minimum tax liability under § 42-1808.03(b).

11 “(d) If the unincorporated business elects to claim the credit for a contribution, no
12 deduction under § 47-1803.03(a)(8) shall be allowable on account of the contribution.

13 “(e) An unincorporated business claiming the tax credit shall provide
14 documentation supporting the tax credit claim in a form and manner prescribed by the Chief
15 Financial Officer.”

16

17 Sec. 5. Real Property Tax Abatement Initiative.

18 (a) Chapter 8 of Title 47 of the District of Columbia Official Code is amended by
19 adding the new section 47-868 to read as follows:

20 “§ 47-868. Tax deduction for leasing property for agriculture use.

21 “(a) If an owner of unimproved real property enters into a lease with an 22 unrelated party for the use of its real property for the purpose of producing food commodity (as 23 defined under § 47-1806.12) through small-scale urban farming, there shall be allowed a 50%

1 deduction from the real property tax imposed by § 47-811 on the portion of leased real property
2 actually used for small-scale farming; provided, that no tax deduction shall be allowed for the
3 real property that abuts other real property with common or related ownership.

4 “(b) In order to be eligible for the tax abatement under this section, any lease
5 agreement shall include, but is not limited to, all the following provisions, and the parties thereto
6 shall be in compliance therewith:

7 “(1) An initial term of not less than three years;

8 “(2) Active use and cultivation of at least 5,000 square feet of the real
9 property;

10 “(3) A requirement that the entire property subject to the lease shall be 11 dedicated toward agriculture use; and

12 “(4) A prohibition against any dwelling units (as defined in § 47-
13 813(d)(3)) on the real property.

14 “(c) For purposes of this section, unimproved real property shall mean land and
15 only structures thereon that directly support agricultural activity such as toolsheds, greenhouses,
16 and produce stands.

17 “(d) A real property owner claiming the tax abatement shall apply for and provide 18 documentation supporting the tax abatement claim in the form and manner as prescribed by the 19 Chief Financial Officer, and shall be subject to the provisions of §§ 47-1007 and 47-1009.”.

21 Sec. 6. Applicability.
