

AN ACT

D.C. ACT 22-125

IN THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

JULY 31, 2017

To amend the Healthy Schools Act of 2010 to require public schools and public charter schools to locate all drinking water sources, install and maintain filters for reducing lead at all drinking water sources, post conspicuous signs on water sources that are not drinking water sources that communicate that the water should not be used for cooking or consumed, test all drinking water sources for lead annually, if a test result shows that a drinking water source's lead concentration exceeds 5 parts per billion, shut off the drinking water source within 24 hours after receiving the test result, determine remediation steps, publicize the test results and remediation steps, and post information about the test results and remediation efforts online, and publish a list of drinking water sources with information about filters, testing, and maintenance; to amend the District of Columbia School Reform Act of 1995 to require public charter schools to include information about compliance with this act in its annual health and safety report; to amend the Department of General Services Establishment Act of 2011 to require the Department of General Services to locate all drinking water sources in recreation facilities, install and maintain filters for reducing lead at all drinking water sources, post conspicuous signs on water sources that are not drinking water sources that communicate that the water should not be used for cooking or consumed, test all drinking water sources in recreation facilities for lead annually, if a test result shows that a drinking water source's lead concentration exceeds 5 parts per billion, shut off the drinking water source within 24 hours after receiving the test result, determine remediation steps, notify the Director of the Department of Parks and Recreation of the test results and remediation steps, and post information about the test results and remediation efforts online, and publish a list of drinking water sources with information about filters, testing, and maintenance; to amend the Child Development Facilities Regulation Act of 1998 to require each child development facility to locate all drinking water sources, install and maintain filters for reducing lead at all drinking water sources in child development facilities, post conspicuous signs on water sources that are not drinking water sources that communicate that the water should not be used for cooking or consumed, test all drinking water sources in child development facilities for lead annually, if a test result shows that a drinking water source's lead concentration exceeds 5 parts per billion, shut off the drinking water source within 24 hours after receiving the test result, determine remediation steps, and notify parents and guardians of children at the child development