“(c-1) Upon determination by a board that an applicant has committed an act described in subsection (a-1) of this section, the board may direct the Mayor to:

“(1) Deny a license or certificate to an applicant; or

“(2) Impose a civil fine not to exceed $5,000 for each violation by any applicant.”

69 (6) The newly redesignated subsection (c-2) is amended to read as follows:

“(c-2) The board regulating the non-health occupation shall determine whether the pending criminal accusation against or conviction of an applicant or person permitted by this subchapter to practice a non-health occupation regulated by the board is directly related to the occupation for which a license is sought only by considering the totality of the following factors:

“(1) Whether the elements of the offense or offenses are directly related to the specific duties and responsibilities of the occupation;

“(2) Any evidence produced by the applicant, licensee, person certified, or person permitted by this title to practice an occupation regulated by the board concerning their rehabilitation and fitness, including:

“(A) Evidence as to whether the applicant, licensee, person certified, or person permitted by this title to practice a non-health occupation regulated by the board has recidivated;

“(B) Evidence showing compliance with all terms and conditions of probation, supervised release, and parole;

“(C) Length of time that has elapsed since the offense was committed;

“(D) Age of the applicant at the time the offense was committed;

“(E) Circumstances related to the offense, including mitigating circumstances;

“(F) Evidence of work history, particularly any training or work experience related to the occupation;

“(G) Letters of reference; and

“(3) The District’s interest promoting employment opportunities for individuals with prior contact with the criminal justice system.

(7) The newly redesignated subsection (c-3) is amended to read as follows:

“(c-3) The board regulating the non-health occupation shall not:
“(1) Inquire into an applicant’s criminal history on the application for a license pursuant to this act;

“(2) Inquire into or consider an applicant’s criminal history until after the applicant is found to be otherwise qualified for licensure pursuant to this act; or

“(3) Consider the following criminal history information of an applicant, licensee, person certified, or person permitted by this title to practice a non-health occupation regulated by the board in connection with a denial, suspension, or revocation of a license, registration, or certification:

“(A) Non-conviction information, including information related to a deferred sentencing agreement, participation in a diversion program, or an arrest not followed by a conviction that is no longer pending;

“(B) A conviction that has been sealed, expunged, vacated, or pardoned;

“(C) A juvenile adjudication; or

“(D) A conviction or pending criminal accusation that is not directly related to the occupation for which a license is sought or for which the person is licensed, registered, or certified, as determined under subsection (c-2) of this section.

(4) New subsections (c-4) and (c-5) are added to read as follows:

“(c-4) If the board regulating the non-health occupation intends to deny, suspend, or revoke a license, registration, or certification due to a conviction or pending criminal accusation that is directly related to the occupation for which a license, registration, or certification is sought or for which the licensee, registrant, or person certified is licensed, registered, or certified, the board shall notify the applicant, licensee, registrant, or person certified, in writing, prior to its final decision, with the following information:
“(1) The offense that forms the basis for the potential denial, suspension, or revocation, and the rationale for deeming the offense directly related to the occupation for which the license, registration, or certification is sought or for which the licensee, registrant, or person certified, is licensed, registered, or certified;

“(2) A copy of any criminal history records on which the board relies;

“(3) A statement that the applicant, licensee, registrant, or person certified may provide evidence of inaccuracies within the applicant’s criminal history records;

“(4) A description of additional information that the applicant, licensee, registrant, or person certified may produce to demonstrate his or her rehabilitation and fitness; and

“(5) Information about the right to request a hearing under § 47-2853.22 and the process for requesting a hearing.

“(c-5) By January 1 of each year, the Mayor shall submit a report to the Council including the following information from the prior fiscal year for each board regulating a non-health occupation:

“(1) The total number of applications received for each type of license, registration, or certification;

“(2) The number of individuals with a criminal history who were successful in obtaining a license, registration, or certification;

“(3) Information about the individuals with a criminal history who received a notice of intent to deny, suspend, or revoke based on their criminal history, including how many individuals received such notice, what criminal offenses were used as a basis for the adverse decision, and the justification for use of criminal history information in the adverse decision;
“(4) The number of individuals with a criminal history who provided evidence of mitigation or rehabilitation in response to notices of intent to deny;

“(5) The number of individuals with a criminal history who appealed the final decision, as well as the outcomes of each appeal;

“(6) A description of how each board has facilitated access to licenses, registrations, and certifications for individuals with a criminal history, in light of the District’s public policy of promoting employment opportunities for individuals with prior contact with the criminal justice system.”.

(c) Section 47-2853.22 is amended by adding subsections (j) and (k) to read as follows:

“(j) After receiving a notice of potential denial, suspension, or revocation under section 47-2853.17(c-4), the applicant, licensee, registrant, or person certified shall have 30 business days to respond. The board regulating the non-health occupation shall have 30 business days to make its final decision based on an individualized assessment of the response provided by the applicant, licensee, registrant, or person certified. In making a final decision, the board may only consider a conviction of or pending criminal accusation against an applicant or person permitted by this subchapter to practice a non-health occupation regulated by the board is directly related to the occupation for which a license is sought, pursuant to subsection (c-2) of section 47-2853.17.

“(k) If the board regulating the non-health occupation makes a final decision to deny, revoke, or suspend a license, registration, or certificate, based on the determination that a conviction or pending criminal accusation is directly related to the occupation for which a license is sought or for which the person is licensed, registered, or certified, the board shall provide the applicant, licensee, registrant, or person certified, in writing, with the following:
“(1) The offense that forms the basis for the denial, suspension, or revocation, and the rationale for deeming the conviction to be directly related to the occupation for which the license, registration, or certification is sought or for which the licensee, registrant, or person certified, is licensed, registered, or certified; and “(2) The process for judicial review under § 47-2853.23.”.
